Explore the scenic coast of New Brunswick and New England on a 10-day journey that takes you from historic Boston to pristine New Brunswick. Kick off this seaworthy adventure with a stop in the “City of the Ships” - Bath, ME. Explore the rocky shoreline of Rockland, ME where you might kayak by lobster boats. In Eastport, ME tour the last stone mustard mill in America. In seaside St. Andrews, New Brunswick, watch whales play, explore with a naturalist, or perhaps play golf at a world class course. Cruising back toward Boston, explore Bar Harbor Maine before stopping in Portland with picturesque views of the Portland Head Light, the oldest lighthouse in Maine. Back in Boston, explore the Freedom Trail where every path leads to a different moment in history.

DAY 1 - Boston, MA

Board your cruise today at noon and explore historic Boston before having dinner onboard the ship. Delve into the rich history of this city and learn about some of the most remarkable and notable stories and artifacts in Massachusetts history.

DAY 2 - Bath, ME

Welcome to the “City of the Ships” - Bath, ME. Located on the west bank of the Kennebec River, Bath remains a major player in the naval shipbuilding industry today. Discover the Maine Maritime Museum and experience over 400 years of shipbuilding heritage and culture. See 19th century brick buildings while exploring shops and restaurants downtown.

DAY 3 - Rockland, ME

Rockland, ME is a charming coastal town with a welcoming downtown, thriving artists’ community, and a rich history of shipbuilding. Settle in and relax as the ship sails “Down East” this afternoon to Eastport, ME, a popular resort town on Mount Desert Island.

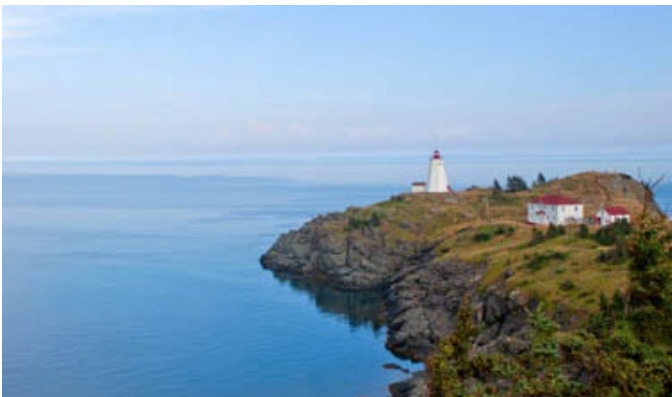

DAY 4 - Eastport, ME

Arrive this morning in Eastport, ME, the eastern-most city in the United States. Consisting of just 12.34 square miles of enchanting island beauty, it’s clear why the locals invite visitors to discover “The Maine Thing.” An optional guided tour of the town acquaints you with the remarkable Old Sow Whirlpool and historic Raye’s Mustard Mill.

DAY 5 - Saint Andrews by the Sea, NB

See whales, explore with a naturalist, play golf at a world class course. Welcome to the legendary charm of seaside Saint Andrews, New Brunswick. Known for its old-world ambiance and colonial heritage, Saint Andrews is also notorious for the latest marine research which you can discover at the Saint Andrews Biological Station or Huntsman Marine Aquarium. Spectacular walking trails, scenic beaches and lively water sports offer fun ways to get to know this area better. Stroll through the award winning Kingsbrae Horticultural Garden to see thousands of flower and tree species. Later, enjoy the local arts and craft stores, galleries and museums that line Water Street, adjacent to the scenic Bay.

DAY 6 - Grande Manan, NB

Explore the largest of the Fundy Islands, Grand Manan. Walk or bike marked shoreline and cliffside hiking trails or tour the iconic Swallow Tail Lighthouse, recognized as a Federal Historic Building. Take a seat on a lighthouse bench and see if you can spot any whales or seabirds in the distance. Depart from Grand Manan at 4 p.m. and spend the rest of the night back in Eastport, Maine.

DAY 7 - Bar Harbor, ME

Before the 1947 fire, some of America’s most affluent families owned summer homes in Bar Harbor. The properties of some of these notable individuals - from the Rockefellers to the Vanderbilts - still exist throughout town. If you are up for an adventure, take a trip to Acadia National Park for a scenic view atop the tallest mountain on the U.S. Atlantic Coast.

DAY 8 - Portland, ME

Arrive at noon in Portland, the largest city in Maine. Soak up the sea breeze and explore local shops, as you watch fishermen bring in the catch of the day. Enjoy a picturesque view of the Portland Harbor inside the Portland Head Light, the oldest lighthouse in Maine. If you like oysters, try a few at the Eventide Oyster Co., who offers 16 different kinds.

DAY 9 - Boston, MA

Cruise back to Boston this afternoon and take a historical tour of this vibrant city. Explore the Freedom Trail in downtown Boston, where every path leads to a different historically significant site location. Learn more about Boston’s role in the American Revolution, while visiting museums, significant meetinghouses, and burial grounds.

DAY 10 - Boston, MA

Disembark this morning in Boston.
